

PROJECT WORK GUIDELINES

(Amity University Online Jan-25 Batch)

1.0 Introduction

Project Based Learning is the application of the comprehensive methodology to inculcate the spirit of strategizing industry operations in a real-time environment.

Through collaboration with Qollabb, students of Amity Online's MBA program will gain structured access to live industry projects, mentorship from seasoned professionals, and certification on successful completion.

This initiative provides essential skills such as strategic thinking, problem-solving, communication, and industry alignment.

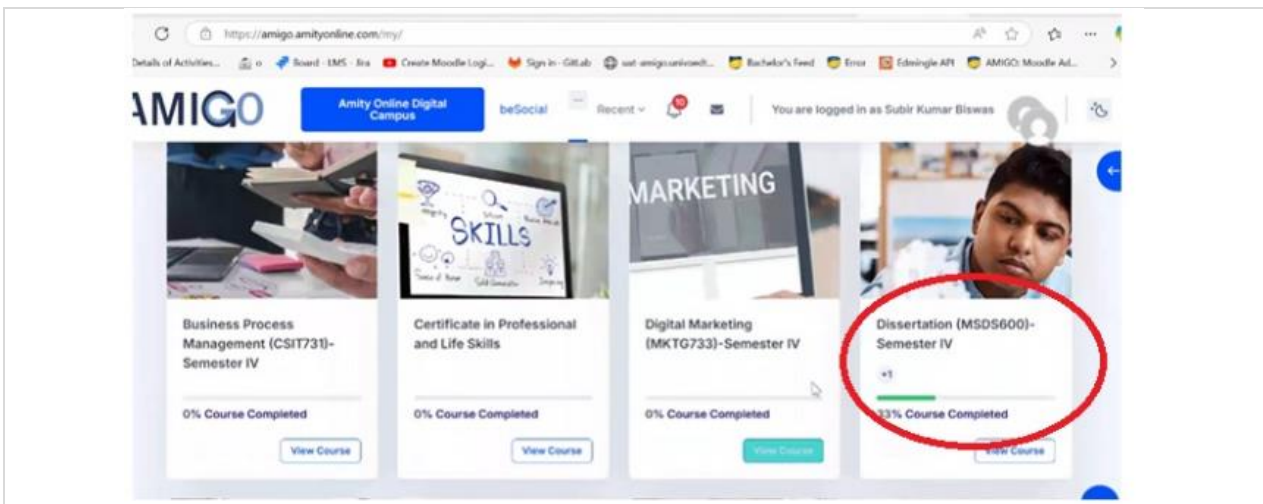

The project work aims to foster students with an opportunity to develop conceptual, analytical, communication and interpersonal skills.

To support the students in their project journey:

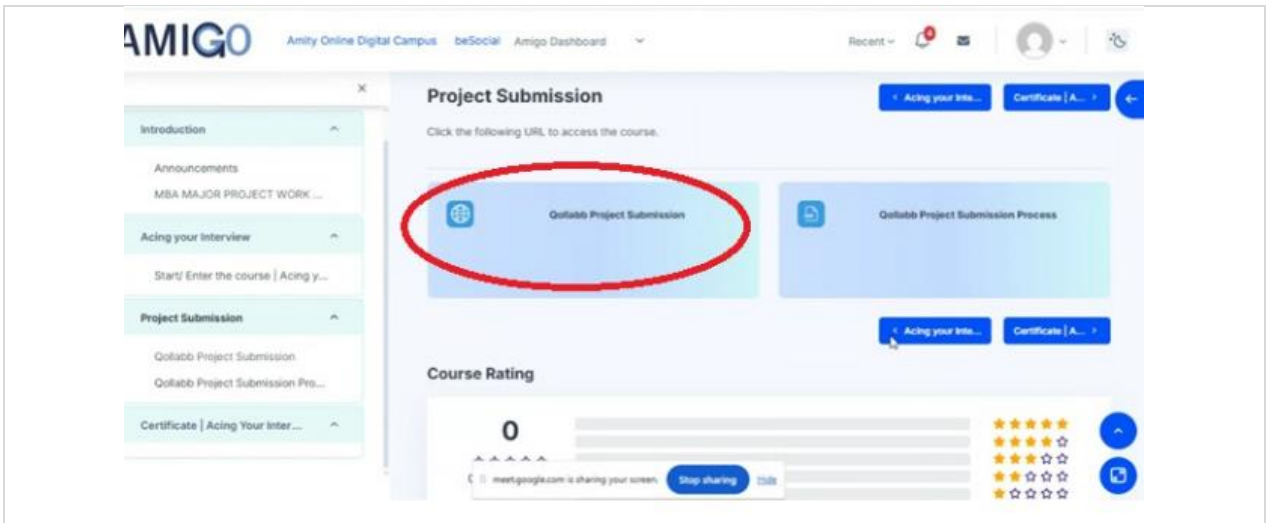

- A. Students will have options to choose projects of their choice from a list of projects from companies that align with their specialization.
- B. Industry experts (Mentor's) from Qollabb's network will guide and mentor you through the duration of the project.
- C. Qollabb will evaluate and certify the completed projects based on predefined criteria.

4.0 Selection of Project Topic

It is important to distinguish between your project topic and your project title:

- Project Topic: The specific area or subject matter you wish to investigate.
- Project Title: The formal name of your final report, which you can finalize once your research is complete.

Students will select projects based on their:

- Area of specialization
- Areas of interest

Criteria for selecting your project topic:

To ensure a successful study, your chosen topic must:

- Be relevant to business or technology.
- Align with the subjects or study areas within your core program and specialization.
- Be clearly focused to facilitate in-depth study, ensuring you have access to adequate sources of information.
- Be of value to your personal and professional development.

5.0 Writing the Project Work Report

5.1. Literature Review

This section involves a critical analysis of existing research related to your topic. You should evaluate substantive findings and theoretical contributions to demonstrate your understanding of the current academic landscape.

5.2. Research Methodology

Clearly define the techniques you used to address your research problem. This helps the reader assess the validity and reliability of your study. Please include:

- Research Design: Specify whether your approach is Descriptive, Conclusive, Causal, or Exploratory.
- Sampling Technique: Identify if you used Probability or Non-Probability sampling.

5.3. Data Collection & Preparation

- Data Collection: Describe the tools and processes used to gather information (e.g., questionnaires, surveys, interviews).
- Data Preparation: Explain how you processed the collected data, specifically regarding classification and tabulation.

5.4. Data Analysis

Detail the analytical process used to derive your conclusions:

- Hypotheses Testing: Outline the tests performed and the resulting data.
- Interpretation: Elaborate on the findings of your research.
- Recommendations: Provide actionable suggestions based on your critical analysis.
- Implications: Discuss the broader theoretical and practical significance of your results.

6.0 Project Report Guidelines & Submission

- The total size of the project document should not exceed 2MB and should be in Portable document format (.pdf) only.
- Figures, graphs, Tables, Appendices and References should follow the American Psychological Association (APA) Style guide, 7th edition.
- Mention the sources of any images, tables, figures cited or presented
- Include a page header known as "running head" at the top of every page.
- Use Font: Times New Roman; Font size: 12; Double-spaced; 1-inch (2.5cm) margin all around
- Use American spellings ('program' not 'programme'; 'center' and not 'centre')
- Use "z" spellings instead of "s" spellings (recognize, organize, summarize)

6.1. Project Work Steps to be followed on Qollabb

Complete the following Project steps to complete the project work on Qollabb Platform:

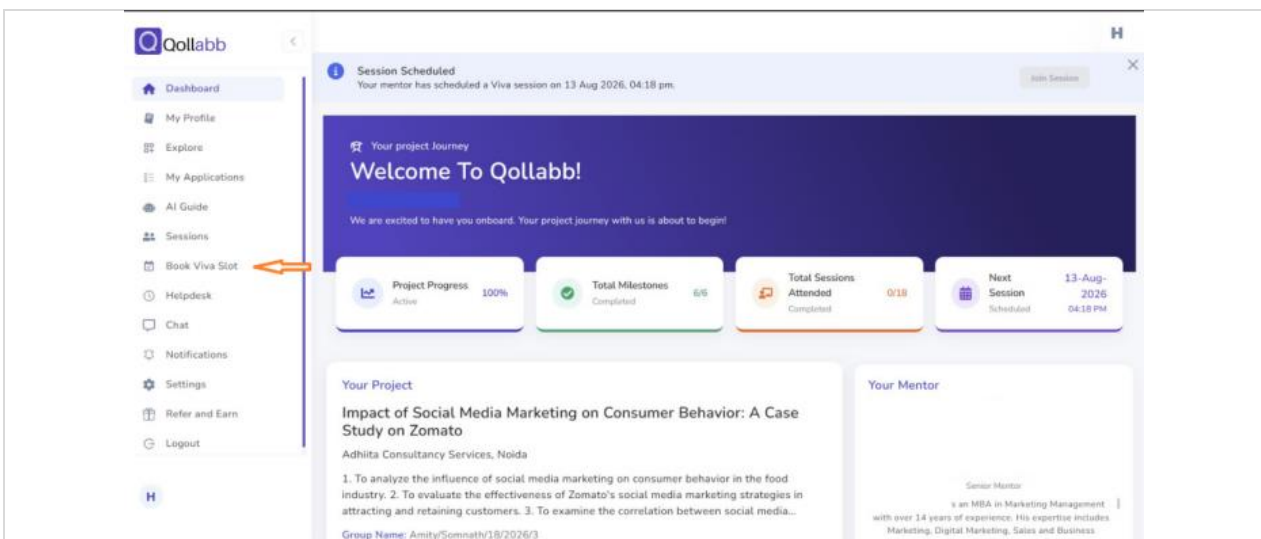

- A. Project Report Preparation following the format of the report
- B. Upload the project report on Qollabb Platform and wait for the evaluation process to complete (this includes Word Count checking, Format checking, Plagiarism checking by Qollabb Team and Mentor evaluation)
- C. Post Evaluation, Get your viva scheduled by booking a Viva Slot, this viva is of 5-10 mins of video call with your mentor, Answer Viva Questions based on the project report submitted by you
